EDRM Sponsorship Guide

Reach Key Legal and Technology Leaders Focused on E-Discovery

The global e-discovery community relies on EDRM for leadership, standards, best practices, tools, guides and test data sets to improve electronic discovery and information governance. Reach this important audience – the folks who are shaping the industry and driving purchasing decisions – as an EDRM sponsor. Now that EDRM is part of Duke Law School, you will also have opportunities to interact with the judges and lawyers who work with the Center for Judicial Studies through events and projects that advance the administration of justice.

As a sponsor of EDRM your company will have opportunities to reach the prime e-discovery market:

- Share thought leadership via white papers, case studies and presentations
- Introduce new products
- Generate leads and opportunities for partnerships
- Participate in working groups who are actively improving standards and processes in e-discovery

Sponsor Programs and Benefits

Brand Visibility

• Logo: Your company logo will be placed on the EDRM website for the duration of the sponsorship period. Sponsor to provide logo in .eps or high-resolution .jpg format.

• EDRM logo: Sponsor may post EDRM logos on sponsor company website, educational or marketing materials, for the duration of the sponsorship period.

Lead Generation

• Co-branded white paper or article: Sponsor may submit written content in the form of an educational white paper or article. EDRM will review, suggest edits. Approved content will be co-branded and posted on the EDRM Resources section.

• Co-branded email, sponsor content: Founding and Gold level sponsors may provide content for delivery to the entire EDRM subscriber list, subject to EDRM review. This may include special offers or invitations to EDRM members.

• EDRM sponsored newsletter: Sponsor’s ad will be included on regular newsletter emails to EDRM subscribers.

• Live webinar events: EDRM staff will promote, host, record and archive your webinar event on the topic of your choice. Sponsor provides presentation content and speakers. Sponsors are encouraged to focus on practical answers to challenges in e-discovery and information governance.
  - Average webinar registrations: 192 (based on average attendance at 40 recent events).
  - Sponsor receives contact list, including email address, for all pre-registrations and attendees. Reports including viewer attendance, questions, and feedback/ratings also are provided.
  - Continuous lead potential: Recorded events are archived on BrightTALK and available via EDRM website for on-demand viewing. Sponsors receive quarterly contact lists of on-demand viewer registrations.

Duke Law Center for Judicial Studies Benefits

• Duke Conference registrations: Duke hosts regular conferences on a variety of topics relating to the administration of justice. Conference participants include judges, lawyers, academics and others. EDRM sponsors will receive the specified number of complimentary registrations for the Duke Conference of their choice. Additional registrations will be discounted at 20 percent.

• Judicature: Sponsors will receive the specified number of subscriptions to Judicature, the scholarly journal for judges published quarterly by the Duke Law Center for Judicial Studies. Judicature mails to all Article III judges, federal magistrate judges, and state supreme court justices. Sponsors are welcome to submit editorial content for publication (all content is peer reviewed by the editorial board on a blind submission basis).
